Re: S157283 – Orange (Eugene) on Habeas Corpus

Dear Sir:

In response to your letter requesting status update, received today, please be advised that your writ petition received and filed October 17, 2007 is still pending.

The California Rules of Court do not set a time limit within which the Supreme Court must act on habeas corpus petitions. The length of time the court requires to rule on such a petition depends on the complexity of the issues raised in the petition, and on the constraints imposed by the court's workload.

While we do not know in advance when the court will decide your case, a copy of the court's decision will be mailed to you the same day it is filed. Counsel is not appointed in these cases unless the court files an order to show cause. If such an order is filed, counsel would be appointed to represent you in any proceeding that may be scheduled.

Very truly yours,

FREDERICK K. OHLRICH
Court Administrator and
Clerk of the Supreme Court

INSTRUCTIONS—READ CAREFULLY

- If you are challenging an order of commitment or a criminal conviction and are filing this petition in the Superior Court, you should file it in the county that made the order.
- If you are challenging the conditions of your confinement and are filing this petition in the Superior Court, you should file it in the county in which you are confined.
- Read the entire form before answering any questions.

- If you are filing this petition in the Superior Court, you need file only the original unless local rules require additional copies. Many courts require more copies.
- If you are filing this petition in the Court of Appeal, file the original and four copies of the petition and, if separately bound, one copy of any supporting documents.
- If you are filing this petition in the California Supreme Court, file the original and ten copies of the petition and, if separately bound, two copies of any supporting documents.

Notify the Clerk of the Court in writing if you change your address after filing your petition.
